AMEB Qld is a self-funded business unit of the Department of Education and administers approximately 13,000 quality music and speech and drama examinations annually across the state on behalf of the Minister for Education, Queensland.

The Department of Education engages examiners who are specialists in their field, a practice that is unique to AMEB.

Each year, AMEB Qld offers 25 face-to-face examination sessions across Queensland in the following regions:

- Capricornia
- Northern and Peninsula
- Wide Bay

In addition, enrolments are also received for two Video Repertoire examination AMEB sessions and three Rockschoool Video examination sessions. Over 1,100 different syllabuses are available for examination every year.

AMEB examinations are regarded as the benchmark for assessments in music and speech and drama in Australia with many subjects offered accredited with the Queensland Curriculum and Assessment Authority (QCAA) for the Queensland Certificate of Education (QCE). Candidates and teachers may also benefit from consultancies delivered by experienced AMEB Qld examiners.

The Queensland Advisory Committee (QAC) is appointed by the Minister for Education to provide expertise and specialist advice about the conduct of AMEB examinations within Queensland. QAC membership is comprised of representatives from schools, universities, peak industry bodies and departmental appointments.

In addition, a quarterly newsletter is published which provides updates and articles on topics of interest for enrollers, candidates and parents.

External examination venues are selected based on availability within the nominated session, suitability of examination room facilities and consideration may be given to the venue's proximity to the enroller.

MINIMUM REQUIRED HOURS

External venues must:

- A minimum of five hours of examining in regional locations.

Where there are insufficient candidates to meet the minimum number of examining hours, AMEB Qld may negotiate alternative arrangements with enrollers.

PRE-EXAMINATION PRACTICE SESSIONS

Candidates enrolled and scheduled for examinations are permitted to book the use of an AMEB Qld studio in Ashgrove to practice prior to their examination; however, these are subject to availability. A free one-hour session is available for candidates in Grade 8 and above. Additional one-hour sessions are then available to purchase.

Practice sessions are also available to candidates Grade 7 and below, for an hourly fee.

Fees are payable in person at the time of the practice session by credit or debit card or prior to the practice by B-Point link (email).

Practices may not be on the same day as the examination and may not be available in the scheduled examination room. Please contact the office to schedule a practice time.

GENERAL EXAM AND OTHER POLICIES

EXAM CONDITIONS

AMEB exams are conducted under examination conditions, consequently examiners must assess the candidate for the syllabus and grade for which they are enrolled.

Enrolments cannot be changed on the day.

Mixed syllabuses are not allowed during an examination. For example, a candidate cannot present Old Syllabus technical work and New Syllabus pieces.

An examiner will ask a candidate to complete technical work prescribed in the examination in which they are enrolled.

To avoid interrupting the exam, examiners will hear an incorrect repertoire piece when a candidate presents mixed syllabuses and provide commentary on the report.

When incorrect works are presented, “Unable to Assess or U/A” will be recorded in the relevant section of the candidate’s report.

Relevant penalties apply with an explanation as to the penalty provided in the General Remarks section.

ARRIVING BEFORE THE EXAMINATION

Candidates should arrive at least 10 minutes prior to the examination start time and must be ready to start their examination at the scheduled time.

- If a candidate arrives before their scheduled examination start time but not enough time for a 5-minute warm up, they may not be given the opportunity to warm up.
- Candidates arriving five or more minutes late to their scheduled examination risk missing their examination and may forfeit their enrolment fee.
- Candidates who are running late for their examination should in the first instance contact the State Office so options can be discussed.

EXAMINATION DAY WARM-UP

Warm up rooms are not guaranteed at any venue. Warm-up rooms are provided for the purpose of warming-up only. Candidates must not expect a full rehearsal.

Candidates may be provided with an opportunity to warm-up:

- five minutes for a grade examination or
- 15 minutes for a diploma examination, where time permits.

Accompanists or associate artists can attend the warm-up room for purpose of warming up with the candidate.

Teachers and parents are not permitted in the warm-up rooms unless a special request has been submitted at the time of enrolment for:

- Anxious candidates
- First time candidates and
- Particularly young candidates who may require assistance with preparation and/or tuning of instruments.

Candidates sitting examinations in any location are strongly encouraged to make final preparations at home before travelling to the examination venue.

NB: Parents and teachers are not permitted to wait or listen outside any examination room.

PROOF OF IDENTIFICATION

All candidates undertaking:

- AMEB examinations Grade 8 and above MUST present photographic identification to the AMEB supervisors and
- Rockschooll examinations Grade 6 and above MUST present photographic identification to the AMEB supervisors.

Acceptable photo identification documents include:

- School identification card
- University student card
- Passport
- Driver Licence.

If photographic identification is not provided on the day of the examination, candidates are required to bring the identification in person to the AMEB Qld State Office within 48 hours of the examination.

In regional areas, a JP certified copy of the candidate's identification must be emailed to enquiries.ameb@qed.qld.gov.au within 48 hours of the examination.

Examination results will be withheld if identification is not provided.

GENDER DIVERSITY

AMEB Qld may request documentation to support the candidate identifying differently from their biological sex as recorded on their birth certificate or passport. Documentation could include:

- A statement from a Registered Medical Practitioner or a Registered Psychologist which specifies their gender.
- A valid Australian Government travel document, such as a valid passport, which specifies their gender or
- A state or territory birth certificate, which specifies their gender. A document from a state or territory Registrar of Birth Deaths and Marriages recognising a change of sex and/or gender will also be seen as sufficient evidence.

Under the Public Records Act 2002 and the Information Privacy Act 2009 public records such as enrolment details must be made and kept accurate.

Enrollers may enrol a candidate who identifies as gender diverse by recording their sex, as indeterminate/intersex/unspecified in the AMEB Shop. AMEB Qld does not require these documents on enrolment, however may require documents if a change is requested.

NB: The candidate details used with AMEB Qld should be the same as those recorded on the candidate's school documents to ensure their information uploads to the QCAA when required for Queensland Certificate of Education purposes.

CARE AND SUPERVISION OF CANDIDATES

Children and young people under the age of 18 years of age must be accompanied and supervised by an adult at the examination venue.

AMEB Qld employees will give direction to candidates attending the venue to facilitate the conduct of examinations or other services.

AMEB Qld employees may direct a person to leave the premises at any stage if they are concerned about the safety or wellbeing of the person or others, and/or the proper conduct of AMEB Qld examinations.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Enrollers must advise AMEB Qld in the Special Request field on the enrolment form, if:

- the candidate has been taught by an examiner within the last 2 years
- an examiner is a relative of the candidate
- an examiner is a family friend.

AMEB Qld will only exclude an examiner if one or more of these three conflicts of interests exist.

AMEB Qld will not accept enrollers' requests to exclude examiners at any grade or Diploma level.

Previous examination by an examiner, regardless of the result, is not considered a conflict of interest.

ACCOMPANIMENT

Except for Extra List pieces, wherever the pieces presented are provided with piano accompaniments, accompaniment is mandatory. Refer to the relevant syllabus for the full requirements.

Enrollers are solely responsible to engage and manage the candidate's accompanist around the candidate's examination date.

Under no circumstance will an examiner accompany a candidate when examining.

It is desirable in all grades for candidates to be competently accompanied. Candidates enrolled in higher grades (particularly when performing pieces for which interpretative success depends upon a musical partnership e.g., sonata, etc.) candidates are advised to seek the services of an experienced accompanist to do themselves full justice and be assessed accordingly.

Recorded Accompaniment AMEB to Grade 3

A candidate:

- may perform with AMEB recorded accompaniment where it is available
- using recorded accompaniment is responsible for providing and operating their own equipment
- should practise with the recorded accompaniment before the examination, to achieve the best exam outcome.

AMEB Qld supervisors and examiners will not assist with the operation of any equipment to conduct the performance.

Teachers must consider the candidate's age and technical ability before recommending they use recorded accompaniments.

Where a candidate is performing with recorded accompaniments in an examination, they must use the '100%' or 'performance' tempo.

Rockschool Accompaniment

Examiners will provide the backing tracks for Rockschool grade book pieces. Candidates need only supply backing tracks if performing any Free Choice Pieces which require a backing track; or any transposed grade book vocal pieces. Free Choice Pieces may be performed to a backing track, live accompaniment or as a solo piece (without backing track or accompaniment). If you present a Free Choice Piece with a backing track, please ensure your instrument's part is not in the recording.

PAGE TURNING, ASSOCIATE ARTISTS AND ACCOMPANISTS

A page-turner may be used by candidates and/or accompanists/associate artists. Page turners, accompanists and associate artists are only permitted in the examination room when required.

MOBILE PHONES

Mobile phones of teachers, candidates and accompanists must be turned off in any examination room, except for using the device for tuning purposes or playing a recorded accompaniment. Recording examinations is strictly prohibited.

USE OF DEVICES

AMEB Music Exams

A candidate should check and test their devices or electronic or digital resources are working as intended and align with AMEB syllabus requirements before the examination.

The speaker/s must be capable of producing an audio quality that is suitable for the type of music being performed and must be able to produce a volume level sufficient to achieve the appropriate balance between solo performance and accompaniment.

The candidate should ensure their speaker is fully charged and bring the power/charging cable as a back-up. AMEB Qld does not provide WiFi services. A candidate will need to use their own mobile data, if required.

Rockschool

Backing tracks for Free Choice pieces is no longer mandatory, however if playing a Free Choice Piece with a backing track, candidates must provide a USB or device containing the downloaded audio. This may be any device with a 3.5 mm minijack output e.g. MP3 player, portable CD player, phone or tablet.

Examiners will provide a 3.5mm (minijack) lead to connect the device to a PA system. Audio cannot be live streamed directly from a mobile device as they must be turned off or onto airplane mode during an examination. Examiners will not stream or download any backing tracks on the candidate's behalf.

It is recommended that two different sources are brought to the examination, using one as a backup.

PHOTOCOPIES

In general, the Copyright Act prohibits the use of photocopied music. Photocopies must not be used by candidates in AMEB examinations, unless an exception to copyright applies, or the relevant music publisher has granted permission for the candidate to make a copy.

One exception exists. Candidates are permitted to use photocopies for ease of page turning only, however, the original version of the score from which the copy was made, must be in the examination room with the candidate.

In some circumstances, a copy of music may be required for use by the examiner. In these cases, if performing from memory, candidates must provide a published edition of the music to the examiner.

Diploma candidates must supply a copy of their music to the examiner.

Examiners may note any improper use of photocopies on the candidate's report.

DOWNLOADED MUSICAL SCORES

A candidate may present for examinations using scores that have been legally purchased and downloaded via online sheet music retailers. Please note the candidate is responsible for ensuring copyright clearance for their use of this material has been obtained. Candidates must note that penalties may apply for the improper use of copyright material.

Candidates may be asked to show proof of purchase of digital downloads. Candidates must therefore bring evidence of proof of purchase to the examination.

RECORDING PRACTICAL EXAMINATIONS NOT ALLOWED

AMEB Qld does not record face-to-face examinations. Candidates, accompanists, parents and teachers are prohibited from filming or recording any face-to-face examination.

TRAINEE EXAMINERS

A trainee examiner under the supervision of a senior examiner may conduct none, part or all the examination. No requests to exclude a trainee examiner will be accepted unless a conflict of interest exists.

NO COMMUNICATION WITH EXAMINERS

Enrollers, parents and teachers are prohibited from directly communicating with examiners on any matter regarding a candidate or any examination schedule. This includes sending letters with the candidate on examination day or contacting any examiner after the exam day regarding any examination or scheduling matters.

- An enroller can be a teacher, parent or guardian, school or a candidate who is 18 years or older.
- An enroller is a person who is registered in the AMEB Qld shop with a unique enroller identity number (ID).
- Enroller ID number is linked to the enroller's contact details only.
- AMEB Qld only corresponds with the registered enroller as their details are the only details held in the AMEB Qld database.
- Dual enrollers - an enroller who enters a candidate on behalf of a school who is also a private music teacher must have two separate and unique enroller ID numbers to manage and differentiate their private students from their school students.

ENROLLER RESPONSIBILITIES

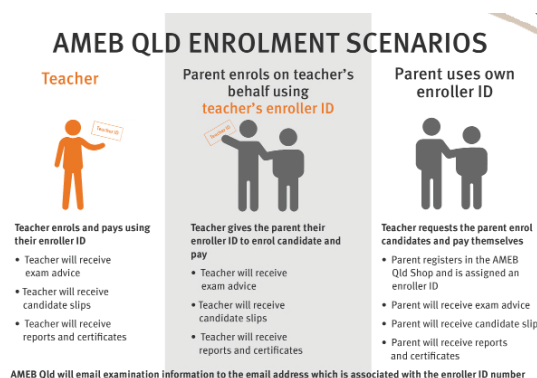

Candidate's Enrolment

- Understanding, accepting and complying with AMEB Qld's terms and conditions, policies and procedures.
- Correctly enrolling their candidate in the syllabus subject and grade for which they have been prepared.
- Ensuring the correct name of the candidate is supplied upon enrolment.
- Advising AMEB Qld of any dates to avoid, special requests and individual needs at enrolment.
- Enrolling their candidates by the chosen session close dates.
- Ensure payment of all enrolment fees and charges, acknowledging that examinations will not be scheduled without AMEB Qld receiving the full payment of all fees.

When a teacher provides their Enroller ID to another person to enrol

If a teacher provides their enroller ID to another person (i.e. a parent) to enrol the candidate on their behalf, the teacher is still responsible for all examination matters and is the primary AMEB Qld contact. The teacher must provide any other person who enrolls a candidate on their behalf with the following information:

- Exam subject title
- Exam subject code
- Syllabus type (old, new or revised)
- Exam grade
- Examination session number
- Enrolment Guide for Parents (refer AMEB Qld website).

Checking the Candidate's Enrolment

- At enrolment, enrollers must check the details of the enrolment on the tax invoice/purchase confirmation via 'My Records' in the AMEB Qld Shop to ensure there are no errors.
- If an error is detected before 11:59pm on the close date and AMEB Qld has been advised of this error, no change of enrolment or change of name fee will apply. Differences in grades may attract either an additional cost or a refund.
- If an enrolment error is not detected until after 11:59pm on the close date a change of enrolment form must be completed and a fee will apply.
 - Differences in grades will attract either an additional cost or a refund.
- A change of name can be made free of charge up to three business days before the examination date. Any change of name after the exam will involve the change of name fee. There will be a fee to re-print and post the amended certificate, if required by the candidate.
- To amend enrolment errors (syllabus and/or grade); complete the Change of Enrolment Form or the Change of Name form as soon as possible. Forms must be received and relevant fees paid to AMEB Qld at least three business days before the examination date.
- Enrollers are strongly encouraged to also check enrolment details contained in examination advices and candidate slips emailed to enrollers after the exam has been scheduled.

Distributing candidate examination information

- Enrollers must distribute the candidate slips to all candidates or their parents in a timely manner.
- Enrollers must contact AMEB Qld before the start of the enrolled examination session if they have not received an examination advice.

After the examination, the enroller is responsible for:

- Providing the candidate or their parent with the examination reports accessed via AMEB Shop/My Reports and certificates sent by Australia Post within 21 days of receipt.

Ensuring enrollers details are correct

AMEB Qld communicates only with the enroller. Enrollers must always ensure their contact details are current. Any changes can be made through the AMEB Qld Shop under 'Edit My Profile.'

ADDITIONAL RESPONSIBILITIES FOR TEACHERS

- Accept AMEB examinations are conducted strictly in accordance with the syllabus requirements, objectives and regulations as prescribed in the current Manual of Syllabuses and AMEB Qld policies.
- Prepare candidates in accordance with the syllabus objectives outlined in the Manual of Syllabus.
- Consider the candidate's age and maturity when selecting a suitable grade and pieces for the candidate.

Teachers who do not wish to enrol and manage a candidate's enrolment should encourage the candidate's parent to become the candidate's enroller in their own name. As a result, the teacher will no longer receive any AMEB correspondence. As the registered enroller, the parent will receive all AMEB Qld examination information, including tax invoices, examination schedules, candidate slips, reports, results and statements of results via AMEB Shop/My records.

ROCKSCHOOL, PAA AND CREATIVE QUALIFICATIONS UPDATES

Two new Associate Awards have been added to the Rockschool suite. These qualifications are high-level performance-based exams aimed at learners who have already achieved their Grade 8. Enrolments can be made through SCORE. New repertoire grade books for Electric Guitar, Bass and Drums have been released, adding even more repertoire choices for teachers and candidates. The two Creative Qualifications, vlogging and podcasting, have been withdrawn and are no longer offered.

EXAMINATION PREPARATION CHECKLIST

Examination preparation and enrolment

Prepare the correct syllabus requirements

Choose and prepare pieces from the correct syllabus and Grade book; and technical requirements from the correct Technical workbook for the relevant grade.

Choose the most suitable examination session

Candidates should be prepared to sit from the first day of a session. Ensure the session doesn't conflict with any other dates (i.e. school exams, sport, religious fixtures). Ensure accompaniment (if needed) is also available.

Enrol in examination

Enrol in the chosen session! Ensure you enrol in the correct subject; and provide all the correct candidate information on enrolment.

View the Enrolment Checklist for further detail.

Confirmation of enrolment

Check details are correct in the confirmation of enrolment. Ensure the enrolment does not require amending. If the enrolment does need amending, completion of a 'Change of Enrolment' form and payment of a fee may be required.

Examination advice

AMEB Qld endeavours to release examination information approximately three weeks before the date of the exam. Teachers must check and forward on any exam advices and candidate slips to candidates/parents; notifying them of the exam date and time.
